

HEAVY DUTY MECHANIC

Are you a Professional Heavy Duty Mechanic with years of experience?

Do you dream of living and working overseas and enjoy a great work-life balance?

We are seeking experienced Mechanics of Trucks and Heavy Duty Vehicles Drivers for positions overseas now.

To be successful, an applicant should be able to:

Perform mechanic functions and duties of inspecting, checking, troubleshooting, repairing, and replacing all mechanical equipment;

Ability to maintain high levels of safe and productive equipment performance;

Must be able to regularly bend, stoop, move from ground level to higher levels, raise/lift from ground level and lift at least 25 Kgs;

Must be able to manually transport a load of up to 40 Kgs., apply up to 100-foot pounds of torque and able to and put on emergency equipment;

Ability to work in a fast-paced environment, Indoors and Outdoors, Temperature extremes due to weather conditions and equipment;

The open positions require the following skills and standards:

A valid relevant professional driving license from your country of origin or residence;

A minimum of a Senior secondary certificate, Post secondary credentials preferred, Strong written and verbal communication skills in English Language;

Technical certification, training in a mechanical environment or energy related field is preferred;

The ability to establish and maintain excellent relationships with clients, ability to work in and around industrial/electrical equipment;

The ability and willingness to follow a clean driving regime and A collaborative + inclusive team approach;

A clean criminal record, a clear driving record, a sound medical screening certificate and a proven history of no substance abuse;

Experience in the supervision of more junior staff

Proactivity, strong time management and organization skills;

Proficiency with Paper Maps, use of Navigational equipment, Computer literacy (Microsoft and Google suite) preferred;

Ability to read and understand, analyze, and interpret documents, equipment repair manuals, reports and federal, state and local codes and regulations;

Ability to perform basic mathematical calculations, such as percentages, ratios and proportions to practical solutions is required;

Ability to inspect and work with brakes according to Federal safety regulations;

Ability to use diagnostic equipment, welding and cutting machines, tire mounting, replacement and repairing equipment;

Ability to work on all equipment at the terminal level, such as steam rack equipment, shop equipment, and company cars / pickups;

Ability to diagnose, fix and operate more than one type of the following preferred:

Tractor Trailer, Flatbed, Tractor Highway Trucks, Refrigerated Truck (over 4,600 Kg), using three or more axles;

Fuel Tankers Trucks, Crane Trucks, Mixer Trucks, Class 1 Pressure Trucks, Cargo Trailer trucks.

How to apply: Please send email to jobmarket@huilaconsultancy.com. To speed up your application, please upload a copy of your CV.